“Communication for Action in Business” – Do you find your instructions and communications are sometimes misunderstood or not as clear as you would like them to be? Does it often take longer than it should to explain what you want yet some people still don't get it? You will discover the causes of these and other communication challenges. This workshop will teach you how to change the way you communicate with people in business.

QUESTION: What Do You Teach In The Communication For Action In Business?

ANSWER: Having worked with more than 500 Clients during the past 30 years we have discovered that the majority of misunderstandings arise from one or two main causes: A lack of clarity in communication and/or inadequate listening – because of this we teach clarity of communication and proactive listening.

QUESTION: How Long Does The Program Take To Produce Results?

ANSWER: Typically, by the end of the program, you will already be an impeccable communicator as well as an attentive listener. The workshop will teach you how to eliminate, or at least minimize, most misunderstandings.
