"Incompletes" - Do you have a lot of "incompletes", tasks and communications that have not been completed for at least 1 month? Are you often late to appointments? Do you keep your word no matter what happens? If you don't, we'll teach you how to understand the cause and consequences of these behaviors. This workshop will help you eliminate the incomplete cycles in your life.

QUESTION: What Is An "Incomplete?"

ANSWER: These are actions that you have not completed for a specific reason, and for a period of time, that drain your personal energy.

QUESTION: Can You Give Me Some Examples Of An Incomplete?

ANSWER: Yes, an incomplete cycle of action can include; communications you have not delivered, a course of studies you have not started or completed, a book that you have not read, a discipline you have not pursued, a car you have not washed or even a garage you have not cleaned.

QUESTION: What Are The Consequences Of "Incompletes" In Our Lives?

ANSWER: The major consequence of "incompletes" is the loss of personal energy and an increased lack of focus. When an incomplete is resolved successfully, personal energy and renewed excitement enter our lives - we feel happier and more secure within ourselves - we start making a difference in the lives of others...

QUESTION: How To You Handle Incomplete Cycles Of Action?

ANSWER: This is what you learn in the program – three easy options to handle all "incompletes." however, what is more important in the workshop teaching is the full understanding and the psychology behind incompletes. Unless one comes to fully understand where they're coming from and how they originate, "incompletes" will continue to appear in one's life.
