QUESTION: Often, We Do Not Do What We Truly Want To Do With Our Lives. How Is This Resolved?

ANSWER: An excellent point...most of us avoid thinking of our life purpose and decide to abandon our dreams, because we do not think we can successfully integrate them into our lives. We are afraid that to truly do what we want to do, we have to abandon what we are doing and the people we are with, this is one of the most powerful obstacles our mind creates to trap us in our “comfort zone”. The truth is that there is always a "win-win" solution to any challenge but most of us are unwilling to consider it, because of fear, confusion, low energy, and uncertainty...our biggest challenges.

These topics are examined in depth by our participants and resolved.
