“Your Relationship to Money” – Transform a dysfunctional monetary relationship into functional abundant harmony – Don’t have the money you need? Really don’t understand “money” and its attributes? Can too much money be bad for people? Does money equal greed? It’s time to heal your relationship with money. Learn how to generate income despite uncertain economic times and stop using your external environment as an excuse.

QUESTION: This Sounds Like A Program Everyone Should Take – Who Would Not Want To Make Money?

ANSWER: You would be surprised, but most people, even those who have money, do not have a good relationship with money. Money means different things to different people.

QUESTION: What Do You Discuss In This Program?

ANSWER: We discuss money and what it means to each individual; we show the ineffective beliefs and behaviors one has towards money and we offer people an opportunity to remove any personal blocks or resistance they may have to making money. We also discuss some situations in which people consistently lose money, then re-make it, only to lose it again.

QUESTION: What Will People Learn In This Program?

ANSWER: Without truly understanding the meaning of money and having a good relationship with it, one cannot truly become economically independent. We teach people a very simple and effective way to consistently make money in their lives and how to keep it! The money we have is truly a reflection of who we are and how we feel about ourselves.
